Sign analysis has a flat lattice and unordered sign elements \{ -, 0, + \}; if a variable’s value can have multiple signs then the analysis assigns TOP.

1. Will the sign analysis always produce the meet-over-path solution? Justify your answer by proof sketch or example.